PROYECTOS

- BolgDalepp
In this blog, I share my experiences as a programmer and offer some advice. I developed it using technologies such as Next.js and Tailwind CSS for rapid frontend development, and used Markdown files for creating the posts.
- Template
I created a template for my portfolio and for others to easily create their own. It is developed using technologies such as Next.js and Tailwind CSS for the frontend, with data in JSON format.

ABOUT

- Hello! My name is David, my specialty is frontend development. I'm very good at minimalist design, although I like to go a little further. If you're looking for a frontend developer, look no further. I'm the person you need!
